

PLYMOUTH COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

and PILGRIM ADVOCATES PRESENT

“HOT TOPICS IN CRIMINAL LAW”

WHEN: March 4, 2010 at Brockton District Court; 4:00 – 7:00 in the Rotunda on the 3rd Floor

You will learn...

- This program is a unique opportunity for criminal law practitioners to come together for presentations and discussions on criminal law topics. The seminar is designed for new and experienced attorneys who appear in both the District and Superior Court. Hear about recent developments in litigation affecting criminal trial practice throughout Massachusetts as well as specific issues involving criminal practice in the Southeastern Massachusetts.
-
- Topics: Impact of Melendez-Diaz and Development in case law since Melendez-Diaz; Case law update; Impact of the NAS Report on Forensic Evidence; Latest development in Search and Seizure law etc.,

Presenters

- Judge Paul Dawley, Presiding Judge Brockton District Court
- Frank H. Spillane, Esq.,
- James Murphy, Esq.,
- Edward Sharkansky, Esq

Costs: PCBA Members: pre-registration $40.00; day of seminar $50.00;

Non-PCBA Members: $60.00; or pay $75.00 to become a PCBA Member and attend the seminar for free!

Registration: To pre-register send a check or money order payable to: Plymouth County Bar Association and mail to P.C.B.A., P.O. Box 7303, Brockton, MA 02303, or you may register at the door.